

COMELY CHORUS OF 25
GIVES GOOD BURLESQUE
AT OLYMPIC THEATRE

The offering at the Olympic Theatre on Fourteenth Street this week is a two-act burlesque called "The Mischievous Makers," in which a chorus of twenty-five girls appear. The comedy twenty-five girls entertained a capacity house last night with their singing and dancing.

VILLAIN A CHIMPANZEE
IN THE MASQUE OF LIFE.
FILM PLAY AT THE PARK.

"The Masque of Life," a very interesting film, began an engagement at the Park Theatre last night and will continue there indefinitely. The picture, which is sponsored by the Nigmat Film Company, was made in Italy by Count Giuseppe Cippico.

Rita Jolivet and Hamilton Revelle have the chief roles. Another role falls to the lot of Pete Montebello, a chimpanzee, and he plays it well.

The story told in the film is dramatic. It concerns a young woman, who rides horses in a circus, and a Prince who falls in love with her. They are to elope, but the death of the King puts the Prince on the throne and blocks his proposed marriage to the circus rider. He marries one of royal blood and becomes the father of a son. This baby is stolen by the chimpanzee and rescued by the circus rider. Later the Queen dies and the King abdicates in favor of his son. Being thus freed from the conventions that surround a throne, the King marries his first love—the little circus rider—and all ends happily.

MOTION PICTURE NOTES

"The Soul of Karl San" will be the feature at the Strand next week instead of "Miss George Washington."

Frances Nelson, Metro star, is to act in a picture by Harry O. Hoyt. It is a dramatic story.

Al Ray, actor, director and writer, has become scenario editor of the Vogue Comedy Company in Los Angeles.

Lester Cuneo and Lillian Hayward will head the cast that will support Harold Lockwood and May Allison in "Edgewise Island."

Billy West, comedian, is soon to be seen in a series of two-reel slap-stick comedies. The first will be "His Married Life."

Panthus, the ugly little dog who supported Gladys Hulette in "Prisdence, the Pirate," has quit the film business and is living in Brooklyn with relatives.

William Farnum will soon begin work for William Fox in a photoplay in which he will wear a silk hat. He's practicing with the hat now.
